

NEW DUBLIN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS

AUGUST 2016

Dear Friends,

Thank you to everyone for your prayers for our son, Sam. He ran a high fever on Homecoming Sunday and had to be rushed off to the ER after the amazing performance by our musical guests, the Glorylanders. It was an anxious time; yet Ginny and I both felt strengthened by your loving support.

Homecoming was a reminder of all that I enjoy about New Dublin Presbyterian: the flowers and table decorations, the amazing food, the beautiful sanctuary and grounds, including our new walkways. But, most of all, it is the people that make life together so profound and beautiful. It is your spirit of generosity, humility, goodness, and grace that are gifts at all times, ups and downs, sickness and health, joy and sorrow. In praying together, you are an answer to my prayers. In worshipping together, I glimpse the love of God in you. I am blessed to be here.

When Ginny and I were married in Richmond on September 2nd, 2007, we could not have imagined finding such a family of faith. But we asked God to guide our lives, particularly with the hymn: Be Thou my vision, O Lord of my heart. We are grateful for this life and want to celebrate with you.

After worship on September 4th, the Taylor-Troutmans would like to host everyone in the congregation and their friends for this special lemonade on the lawn—at the manse. We can think of no one we'd rather celebrate our anniversary with than each of you and your loved ones. So please no gifts; your presence is present enough. Hopefully, the weather will be lovely enough to enjoy outside, but rain or shine, we will have sweets and drinks and give thanks for this life in ministry together. Be Thou our vision, O Lord of our hearts.

Your pastor and friend,

Andrew
